JUDGMENT ON MCCARN SUSPENDED

Officials of Department of Justice Insist on Fairness to All Sides

UNDENIABLE FEELING
AGAINST "GUN-TOTING"

Carrying of Weapons Objectionable, but Detailed Facts Are Awaited

By C. S. ALBERT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—The political activity occasioned by the honeymoon of Secretary McAdoo, the Mexican situation and the interest of Attorney-General McReynolds in the New Haven investigation has continued without abatement. The distribution of federal pie, which promised to be of the bargain counter variety, came to an abrupt termination. The permission knocked down by Postmaster Young seemed to constitute the crop in sight.

It is freely predicted that this period of lethargy will pass soon. It is said the sharpened axe then will fall. The return of McAdoo is expected to start something. The awakening of McReynolds from his trance may keep the good work going for some time or until all the places in Hawaii have been filled with hungry Democrats, even if they are sent from the mainland.

The total cessation of place-filling gossip left nothing but the case of Jeff McCarn, the United States attorney, as a topic of discussion. Department of justice officials did not wax enthusiastic in expressing their views. Some of them quietly declared that they could not look with placidity upon a district attorney who "toted a gun." It did not seem a proper kind of pocket-piece for an official of that character. A large majority of those connected with the department of justice refused to comment on the case. They insisted that all the detailed facts must be in their possession before a fair opinion could be formed.

It is admitted on all sides that the shooting affair in which McCarn participated will have more weight against his future than all the efforts and complaints of Judge White, combined with all others who dislike the district attorney. The carrying of a weapon, and its use, is objectionable to all those concerned in the matter. It does not appear to them as just the correct thing. No man can predict the outcome. There is no disposition manifested to prejudice McCarn. On the contrary, the almost unanimous feeling is that both sides of the affair should be ascertained before judgment is pronounced.

Valuable sugar property inland from Laramora, in the Dominican Republic, is without protection, according to a report to the navy department from Commander Blerer on the gunboat Wheeling at Santo Domingo City. He says that the town of Laramora has not yet been attacked and that the movements of the revolutionists are unknown in that town. The gunboat Jacarua, whose battery consists of one three-pounder, will leave the Dominican capital tonight for Sanchez and Puerto Plata.

Sniping and desultory firing from the federal lines caused twelve casualties among Dominican non-combatants in Puerto Plata during the past nine days, but otherwise there has been no fighting of consequence. Capt. Eberle of the Washington, who made this report today, already has protested to Gen. Borda that he was not living up to his agreement to safeguard the lives of all non-combatants. He has been in conference with W. W. Vick, rear general of Dominican customs, over that phase of the situation and renewed demands probably will be made upon Gen. Borda to live up to his guarantee.

FIFTH SEPARATION IS ENOUGH FOR JOHN AND HE SUES FOR DIVORCE

John E. Roberts is once more in the limelight of the divorce court and he is now suing Terry Roberts. The papers in the case were filed this morning in the circuit court, and there was considerable comment when the case became known.

Roberts has been involved in a number of marital difficulties and in this particular one claims that his wife tried to shoot him and she says she would have done so, only that the revolver was not in order. Roberts also claims that his wife beat him up and attempted to stab him with a knife. Altogether, the Roberts family troubles appear to have been strenuous.

Roberts adds that he has been separated from his wife on five occasions, and that he means to make this time the last. The suit will be heard before Judge Whitney.

"On to Toronto" for Ad Club's Leis, Bananas, Pines

ARTHUR BROWN WILL PROBE THE DEATH OF CHILD

Inquest Over Remains Will Be Held at Pearl City Court House Monday Evening

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney A. M. Brown is to take up an investigation of the death of Libby Aheakalane, an 11-year-old Hawaiian girl, daughter of a foreman of the Oahu Fruit Company, who was run down by automobile No. 228, driven by Tom Quinn, at a point on the government highway about one-quarter of a mile this side of Waipahu plantation camp.

Deputy Attorney Brown and Deputy Sheriff John Fernandez were in conference this morning, the accident which resulted fatally being taken up in all its various aspects. Following the interview, Brown stated that he would in all probability attend the inquest over the remains of the girl, called by Deputy Sheriff Fernandez for 6 o'clock Monday evening at Pearl City court house.

Deputy Fernandez visited Honolulu this morning for the purpose of conferring with Sheriff Charles Rose and also to secure the appearance of a number of important witnesses to the fatality.

COSTS CHAUFFEUR $50 FOR COLLIDING WITH CAR CARRYING GOVERNOR

Louis Silva, chauffeur, driving an automobile that met in slight collision with a car containing Gov. L. E. Pinkham, A. W. Neely and J. D. Tucker at a point near the brink of the Pali several days ago, was charged with heedless driving before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning and at the conclusion of the hearing was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, to which decision Judge Frank Andrade, representing Silva, noted an appeal to a higher court.

Neely stated this morning that he was at the wheel in the car that was bearing the party of territorial officials to the windward side of the island. As the car approached the sharp turn in the Pali road, the machine in which Silva and his brother were riding, is alleged to have rounded the curve at a fast rate of speed.

While the cars came together, witnesses admitted that little damage was done save the bending of a sheet iron fender.

The defense took issue with the prosecution in that the accident was a serious one, the claim being made that the damaged car contained passengers other than a distinguished party of territorial officials, the collision might have been rated with scores of similar accidents that happen daily on Honolulu streets or country highways.

Hawaii, Hawaiian attractions and products—conspicuous among them leis—will be boosted at Toronto by the Ad Club delegates. Frazier and Beadle expect to be in Toronto during the convention.

PROGRESSIVES INDEPENDENT AND CARTER PLEASED

Bull Moose Organization Rapidly Naming Committeemen and Convention Delegates

George R. Carter, chairman of the Progressive party in Hawaii, announced this morning that the work of the various precinct clubs in electing committeemen to complete the organization of the party, is being carried on rapidly, and that an early completion of the undertaking is looked for.

Of the precinct clubs already organized, four have thus far held their elections, naming the following county committeemen:

Second of the fourth—William Keiki.

Third of the fourth—Rev. A. A. Ebersole.

Ninth of the fifth—W. K. Hutchinson.

Fourth of the fourth—J. L. Duchalsky.

The remainder of the clubs are now waiting for a skeleton of the platform and as soon as this is prepared it will be taken up for discussion at special meetings, after which the remaining precinct clubs will select their committeemen.

At a meeting held June 4, the Progressives of the fourth precinct formed another club and elected as officers J. L. Duchalsky, president; Solomon Kaiala, treasurer, and John U. Joseph, secretary.

The clubs which have selected their representatives on the county committee have gone one step further toward completing the work by selecting their delegates to the territorial committee as follows:

Second of the fourth—A. L. C. Atkinson, H. M. Ballou, D. Kalauokalani, Sr., and J. U. Joseph.

The third of the fourth and the fourth of the fourth chose the same men. The ninth of the fourth, however, voted independently and selected as committeemen, A. L. C. Atkinson, C. A. Bishaw, John Nakia and G. W. K. Kaimakalo.

"We like to see this independent spirit displayed," said Mr. Carter in discussing the matter. "It shows the clubs are using their own judgment regarding the selection of committeemen."

TITLE QUESTION STOPS DIVIDENDS HON. CON. OIL CO.

Government Action Leads Directly to Cut Off Monthly Payments Temporarily

Local stockholders of Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company by last night's mail received notice of the discontinuance of dividends, payment of which began the first of the year. This action of the directors is due to the pending question of title with the United States government. In the Chronicle of May 30 the situation is described as follows:

"The Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company has announced its intention of suspending dividends in the following statement mailed to stockholders: 'The directors of this company have decided to temporarily discontinue the payment of dividends, due to the fact that the purchasing company insists on depositing in escrow with the bank all moneys for oil produced and sold from unpatented land, pending the settlement of title application by the government land department.'

"With the exception of the first well put down, it is understood that all the company's production is from lands the titles to which are in question. If the leasing bill should become a law the company might resume dividends."

"Some time ago the company levied an assessment of 10 cents a share on the stock. Following this it began the payment of dividends at the rate of one cent a month, having paid five dividends at this rate up to the present."

Herman Lewis, Soldier Bandit, Gets 20 Years

Orgy of Lawlessness By Colored Soldier Punished By Military Court

Twenty years at hard labor in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., is the sentence passed on Private Herman Lewis, 25th Infantry, the negro soldier who played the part of road agent and bandit in the neighborhood of Schofield Barracks, terrifying the district for some days before he was finally run down by the search parties that scoured the country looking for him. Lewis has served about two years on his first enlistment, and previous to his outbreak of lawlessness had a clear record, although he was thought rather sullen and ill-natured by his comrades.

The sentence, which is one of the heaviest in peacetime records for other than a capital crime, was approved this morning by Major-General Wm. H. Carter, department commander.

Lewis was found guilty of escaping from confinement, of desertion, of the larceny of two watches, some clothing, a government automatic pistol, of driving away an automobile without permission, and of holding up and robbing Charles Silva, Libert Nakai and Takamatsu Akines.

The general court-martial before which he was tried was the maximum court of thirteen members, of which Lieutenant-colonel Charles T. Menoher, 1st Field Artillery, was president, and 1st Lieutenant Gouverneur V. Packer, 1st Infantry, was the judge advocate. Lewis was defended by 2nd Lieutenant Raymond C. Baird, 25th Infantry.

SENATOR RICE'S ANNOUNCEMENT STIRS POLITICS

Many Prospective Candidates on Verge of Declaring Themselves for Various Offices

Senator Charles A. McNamara's announcement during the week of his candidacy for delegate to Congress, coupled with Republican precinct club elections on Thursday evening, has started the political game of 1914 in Hawaii on the first inning of what looks like an interesting contest.

Legislative politics, legislative politics and county politics are booming now. Candidacies are being batched, states are on the way and party organizations will soon wake up and take a hand.

Delegate Kuhl's announcement that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination is expected out any time. In fact, it was originally slated to be given out this week, according to rumor, but the delegate was not quite ready with his announcement and has held it back. It was expected yesterday that the delegate would make a definite statement of his views, but he went down to Wailua for a visit. At the Kapoli Estate offices today it was said that he would not return for a month.

As a matter of fact, the prince's intentions have been well known since early this week, and nothing remains but the authorized statement of his candidacy as a Republican. Rumors that he might run independently are not borne out by later developments and his associates expect that he will again profess allegiance to the Republican standard.

McCandless Announcement Looked For.
L. L. McCandless will shortly make announcement of his own candidacy, unless there should be an altogether unlooked-for switch in the aspect of things political. His friends are already hard at work for "Link" in the precincts and they believe he will land in Washington this time. McCandless now seems to be the only candidate for the Democratic nomination.

American Investments Said to Have Caused Failure

LONDON, England, June 6.—Investments in the United States are given as one of the main reasons for the failure of Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell & Co., one of London's large banking and mercantile firms, which suspended business today.

The capitalization of the corporation is $1,750,000 and it is stated that Arthur Grenfell's operations in the Grand Trunk system is largely responsible for the failure.

William Rockefeller Still Too Ill to Give Testimony
